

ARTH 425. ARTS OF MEDIEVAL SPAIN.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Art History & Communications (Faculty of Arts)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

This course examines the arts of medieval Spain from the late antique 'barbarian' invasions through the fifteenth century. Within this broad span, particular attention will be paid to key themes, including historiography, the centrality of pilgrimage for shaping artistic practice, and the concept of 'convivencia' among Christians, Muslims, and Jews.

- Prerequisite: Any 300-level course or permission of instructor.
