Description

Comprehensive and extended overview of corporations and other businesses from the point of view of internal and external financial decisions, including how the split of raised capital between equity and debt, as well as a firm's policy for returning benefits to shareholders, are used in corporate decision making and in assembling investment portfolios. Consideration of mergers and acquisitions, and further exploration of behavioral finance, governance and sustainability, and the management of both individual and institutional investment portfolios.

- Prerequisites: CCFA 620 or exemption by examination
- Restrictions: Not open to students who have taken CCFA 535.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
