Description

Further opportunities, beyond those provided in the core courses of the low-intermediate and mid-intermediate levels, for students to develop their English pronunciation skills, with a goal of increasing their comprehensibility. The course is designed to help students develop a knowledge of the segmental sounds of the English language and the method and location for producing these sounds. In addition, students will be introduced to word stress.

- Corequisite(s): CEEN 201, or CEEN 211, or CEEN 212, or CEEN 221, or CEEN 222
- Prerequisite(s): CEGl 106 or permission of the Director
- Restriction: Only open to students in the Certificate of Proficiency - English for Professional Communication
