Description

Annotated bibliography that critically assesses five relevant secondary sources for the student's research Project and an additional 3,000 words for the research project.

- Prerequisite: CMPL 655 and/or permission of Associate Dean (Graduate Studies).
- This course is open to students in the LL.M. (Non-Thesis Option), within the Faculty of Law (general program) or within the Institute of Comparative Law. Special permission from Associate Dean of Graduate Studies is required, to be granted only in cases where it is impracticable for a student's course selection to add up precisely to 30 credits.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
