

EDLE 605. LEADING FOR SUCCESS IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Education - Dean's Office (Graduate Studies)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

This course focuses on key issues related to leadership in human resource management. It begins with an introduction of the concepts of leadership and the role of leadership in educational settings. Subsequently, it focuses on addressing strategic planning, and the design, execution, and assessment of recruitment programs, including mechanisms that support performance within the workplace (evaluation, mentoring, professional development). The course will examine the foundations of effective learning for individuals and organisations, and the relationship between the two.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
