Description

Introduction to key themes in contested cities and urban activism, including struggles for LGBTQ communities; racial, gender, and environmental justice, anti-gentrification movements, and contestations over the use of roads and public spaces. How urban geographers and other academics working in urban fields merge scholarship and activism. A hands-on component that focuses on fieldwork skills and direct engagement with communities.

- Prerequisites: GEOG 217 or permission of the instructor.
- Restrictions: Open to U2 and above students

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
