

HIST 342. CANADA AND THE WORLD.

Credits: 3

Offered by: History and Classical Studies (Faculty of Arts)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

Explores the relationships between the societies of Northern North America, including what is now Canada, and the wider world, from c. 1500 to the present. Key themes include migration, diplomacy, empire, colonialism, business, trade, war, international development, and the circulation of culture and ideas. Attention is paid not only to European empires and the Canadian state but also to Indigenous peoples, nongovernmental organizations, migrants, workers, and activists.

- Prerequisite(s): HIST 202 or HIST 203 recommended.
