

INTD 352. DISASTERS AND

Credits: 3

Offered by: Inst for the St of Development (Faculty of Arts)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

Examines how disasters shape and are shaped by socio-economic conditions, inequalities and development processes through interdisciplinary investigation and a wide range of case studies. Analyzes disaster risk reduction, response and recovery efforts from the global to local levels, as well as survivors' perspectives and experiences.

- Prerequisite: A 200 or 300 level course related to International Development, or permission of instructor.
- Restriction: Not open to students who have taken INTD 397 when topic was "Disasters and Development" [fall 2018]. Open to U2 and U3 students only.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.

Launch Visual Schedule Builder