

ISLA 506. REVOLUTIONS: ARAB MIDDLE EAST AND NORTH AFRICA.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Islamic Studies (Faculty of Arts)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

The post-Ottoman Arab world; major socio-political transformations and revolutions in the 20th century Middle Eastern and North African Arab countries; the historical contexts that shaped them and their implications. Interdisciplinarity (anthropology, psychology, sociology, psychiatry, law), effects of revolutions on individuals and societies; the cause of these revolutions; the impact of the modernization/reforms, colonialism and the rise of nationalist movements on them; the diverse compositions and aims of these revolutions; types of social groups and political organizations and societies that were drawn to these revolutions and why; and the role colonial and postcolonial powers played in them.

- 3 hours
- 3 hours

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.

Launch Visual Schedule Builder