

ISLA 538. SUMMER INTERMEDIATE ARABIC 1.

---

Credits: 9

Offered by: Islamic Studies (Faculty of Arts)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

Emphasis on listening comprehension, speaking practice, extensive reading, and intensive general vocabulary, including essential grammar features (the conditional sentence, case endings, the semantic implication of a number of verb forms, and verb aspects).

- Prerequisite: Department placement test, instructor approval.
- Students who participate at this level have studied Arabic for the equivalent of two semesters in a formal setting and have acquired knowledge of some essential grammatical structures that enable them to produce uncomplicated sentences about familiar topics. At this level, students focus their skills on the integration of a variety of authentic materials.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
