

JWST 334. JEWS AND MUSLIMS: A MODERN HISTORY.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Jewish Studies (Faculty of Arts)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

This course examines the modern history of Jewish-Muslim relations beyond just conflict. We will look at the experience of Jews and Muslims -- as individuals and communities -- who charted new cultural territory while navigating colonialism, nationalism, war, and decolonization, through close readings of a wide variety of primary sources (including letters, memoirs, fiction, music, film, and photography) and historical scholarship.
