

LAWG 508D1. INDIGENOUS CONSTITUTIONALISM.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Law (Faculty of Law)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

Exploration of Anishinaabe legality, constitutionalism, and law. Logic and structure through elder's teachings, stories, material culture, and the works of myriad Indigenous writers and orators, including one view of Anishinaabe constitutionalism, what kinds of legal processes and institutions it supports, what kind of law these generate, and how that body of law changes through time and across places.

Contemporary Indigenous law revitalization projects in Canada. How colonialism structures Indigenous-settler relationships on Turtle Island, complicating prospects for Indigenous constitutional and legal revitalization.

- Students must register for both LAWG 508D1 and LAWG 508D2
