

NUR2 608. SEMINAR IN NURSING.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Ingram School of Nursing (Graduate Studies)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

Students gain advanced knowledge of the processes, mechanisms, and principles that promote health and support healing during normative change, illness, and other unexpected events or crises. Through the study of theory, examination of empirical evidence, and discussion of clinical experiences, students develop a philosophical orientation and a value driven approach to nursing to guide their nursing practice with individuals and families. The orientation to practice is Strengths-Based Nursing.

- Restriction(s): Not open to students who have taken NUR2 611D1/D2.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
