Description

Students will work in teams with real clients to analyze and address an actual policy problem, delivering a full policy briefing to their client. Clients will include government departments, private businesses, international institutions, and non-profit organizations.

- Students must register for both PPOL 620D1 and PPOL 620D2
- No credit will be given for this course unless both PPOL 620D1 and PPOL 620D2 are successfully completed in consecutive terms
- Restriction: Only open to students in the Master of Public Policy; Non-Thesis program.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
