

SOCI 631D1. INFORMING SOCIAL POLICY WITH CANADIAN DATA.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Sociology (Graduate Studies)

This course is not offered this catalogue year.

Description

Tools needed to work with complex Canadian surveys in order to address social issues. Theoretical sessions given by experts from the academic community and statistical agencies are combined with laboratory workshops where students apply advanced statistical methods to survey data and complete their own research projects.

- Prerequisites: Advanced undergraduate course in statistics (SOCI 461 or equivalent); passive bilingualism (French and English); and permission of the instructor
- Passive bilingualism (English and French) required, as training will be given in both languages. Maximum enrollment: 12. With permission of the instructor. The course is offered over 2 semesters, and meets 6 hours every 2 weeks.
- Students must register for both SOCI 631D1 and SOCI 631D2.
- No credit will be given for this course unless both SOCI 631D1 and SOCI 631D2 are successfully completed in consecutive terms

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.

Launch Visual Schedule Builder