

SWRK 510. CRITICAL DISABILITY STUDIES.

Credits: 3

Offered by: Social Work (Faculty of Arts)

Terms offered: Winter 2026

View offerings for Winter 2026 in Visual Schedule Builder.

Description

The application of critical disability theory and approaches to social work practice with individuals, families and communities; consideration of intersecting identities/social locations and interlocking oppression; attention to the evaluation and critique of dominant discourses and practices within health and social care, both historically and contemporaneously; exploration of alternative frameworks including social model of disability, and disability justice frameworks and their relevance to social work; attention to social work intervention, advocacy and self-advocacy movements: examination of the role of people with disabilities in policy and program level decision-making with attention to agency, resilience and resistance.

- Restriction(s): Not open to students who have taken SWRK 669.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.

Launch Visual Schedule Builder