Description

Partner organizations will provide students with practical work experience in a Field placement in Canada or abroad. Students will be given the opportunity to apply their legal education in a concrete setting and further develop a demonstrated interest in and commitment to the defence of human rights. Students are selected through an application process directed through the Centre of Human Rights and Legal Pluralism.

- Restriction(s): By departmental approval only. Not open to students who have taken or are taking WRIT 021.

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
