Description

The Capstone Project is meant to provide an opportunity for reflection on a student's trajectory as a jurist towards the end of that student's formal legal education at the Faculty and may be undertaken using various modes of communication including but not limited to academic writing. Students completing Capstone Projects will present their work to the graduating class.

- Pre-requisite: WRIT 449D1
- Restriction(s): Students can undertake a Capstone Project in the last two terms of their program (except with special permission of the Associate Dean (Academic)).
- No credit will be given for this course unless both WRIT 449D1 and WRIT 449D2 are successfully completed in consecutive terms

Most students use Visual Schedule Builder (VSB) to organize their schedules. VSB helps you plan class schedules, travel time, and more.
