

GRADUATE

The University Regulations and Resources section of this Course Catalogue contains important details that you will need during your studies at McGill and should be consulted periodically, along with other sections and related publications. You will find information related to such topics as: general policies, personal information, registration, fees, student records, examinations, student services, and much more.

Select a topic to find out more.

- Regulations
 - Student Rights and Responsibilities
 - Recognition of Degrees
 - Categories of Students
 - Registration
 - Course Information and Regulations
 - University Withdrawal
 - Summer Studies
 - Program Requirements
 - Student Records
 - Regulations Concerning Theses
 - Academic Integrity
 - Identification and Personal Information
 - Submitting Legal Documents
 - Graduation
 - Student Health & Insurance
- Guidelines and Policies
 - Failure Policy
 - Graduate Student Research Progress Tracking
 - Graduate Student Supervision
 - Graduate Studies Reread Policy
 - Guideline on Hours of Work
 - Language Policy
 - Leave of Absence Status
 - Vacation Policy for Graduate Students and Postdocs
 - Ph.D. Comprehensives Policy
 - Admission of Former Students
 - Time Limitation
 - University Student Assessment Policy
- Graduate Studies at a Glance
- Graduate Admissions and Application Procedures
- Fees
 - Billings and Due Dates
 - Tuition Fees
 - Compulsory Fees
 - Administrative Charges and Other Fees
 - Fees and Withdrawal from the University
 - Other Policies Related to Fees
 - Sponsorships/Funding/Fee Deferrals
 - Tax Slips/Receipts
- Fellowships, Awards, and Assistantships
- Research Policy and Guidelines