

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES PROGRAMS (OVERVIEW)

---

Bieler School of Environment

The Bieler School of Environment is a joint initiative of the Faculty of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences, the Faculty of Arts, and the Faculty of Science. It offers a B.Sc. (Ag.Env.Sc.) Major in Environment, a B.Sc. Major in Environment, a B.A. & Sc. Interfaculty Program in Environment, a B.A. Faculty Program in Environment, a Minor in Environment, and a Diploma in Environment. These programs allow you to choose to study on both the Macdonald and Downtown campuses. Further information on all programs is given in the Bieler School of Environment section of this publication, and on the Bieler School of Environment website.

Environmental Programs on the Macdonald Campus

A number of integrated environmental science programs are offered on the Macdonald Campus, particularly within the B.Sc. (Ag.Env.Sc.) and B.Eng.(Bioresource) degrees. The objective of these interdepartmental programs is to provide a well-rounded training in a specific interdisciplinary subject as well as a basis for managing natural resources. For a complete list of the programs, see Overview of Programs Offered.
