

COURSES IN ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

ESL courses are only open to students whose primary language is not English and who have studied for fewer than five years in English-language secondary institutions. As a student in the B.A. & Sc., you may take a maximum of 12 credits—including academic writing courses for non-anglophones—from the list of ESL courses published at the McGill Writing Centre.