Complementary Courses (33 credits)

33 credits of complementary POLI courses selected with the following specifications:

3 credits must be taken in POLI Methods courses at the 300 or 400 level. The 6-credit methods requirement (including POLI 210 Political Science Research Methods.) can only be fulfilled with courses taken at McGill. Credits transferred from other universities are not accepted for this purpose.

9 credits must be taken at the 200 level with no more than 3 credits in a given substantive field (i.e. Political Theory, Comparative Politics, International Relations, Canadian Politics). The remaining 24 credits must come from POLI courses at the 300 level and above.

At least 9 credits must be taken at the 400 level and above, including one mandatory 500-level Honours Seminar which must be taken at McGill.

No more than one-half (18 credits) of a student's political science credits may be in any one field (Canadian Politics, Comparative Politics, International Relations, Political Theory). To take a 300- or 400-level POLI course, students must have taken a 200-level POLI course in the same field. Students are therefore expected to take all their 200-level courses in their first two years.

No more than 12 POLI transfer credits can be used toward the program requirements.

Course lists for each group of political science courses are provided below.
