The Faculty of Education offers programs of professional development in several fields. All such programs are 30 credits, unless otherwise indicated, and may be completed through part-time study. They are intended to provide an opportunity for teachers and other educators to enhance their existing knowledge and skills or to develop new ones, and thus are normally available only to those who are already certified as teachers.

Detailed information regarding general regulations, admission requirements, and program profiles for the following certificates and diplomas may be found in the section for offering departments.

Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology

The Office of First Nations and Inuit Education (OFNIE)

The Faculty of Education collaborates with various Indigenous communities and institutions offering programs whose courses are given either at McGill or off campus. In collaboration with the Kativik Ilisarniliriniq, the Cree School Board, the Kahnawà:ke Education Centre, and various other Indigenous communities in Quebec, OFNIE delivers field-based teacher education programs leading to initial teacher certification and to the Bachelor of Education for Certified Teachers or the Bachelor of Education Kindergarten/Elementary First Nations and Inuit degree. OFNIE also works with departments to meet other educational needs of Indigenous peoples.
