

COURSES OUTSIDE THE STUDENT'S FACULTY

Students enrolled in the School's B.A., B.A. & Sc., B.Sc., and B.Sc. (Ag.Env.Sc.) programs are permitted to take courses outside their faculty in accordance with the regulations of their admitting faculty.

These regulations are not identical:

- Arts students, see Programs Outside the Faculties of Arts or Science – For Arts Students.
- Bachelor of Arts & Science students, see Courses Outside the Faculties of Arts and of Science.
- Science students, see Courses Outside the Faculties of Arts and Science.
Science students in particular should be aware that some courses are restricted and cannot be taken for credit. Refer to Restrictions on courses outside the Faculty of Science in the Faculty of Science's Undergraduate Handbook or contact SOUSA.
- Agricultural and Environmental Sciences students, see Minimum Credit Requirement (p. 1).
- Students in the Diploma in Environment follow the program as specified; see Diploma Environment.
