

EXAMINATION REGULATIONS

---

The method of evaluation for any course, including rules for deferred/supplemental examinations, is determined by the faculty offering the course.

Note: All ENVR courses, regardless of where they are taught, are offered only by the Faculty of Science.

For more information on the University regulations and procedures concerning examinations, see Examination: General Information.