Exchange and Study Abroad Options for Law Students

For more information, see the Study Abroad and Field Studies section.

The Faculty of Law has a strong exchange program with partnerships with leading institutions around the world. Approximately 25% of undergraduate law students participate in a study abroad program.

- If you are a McGill law student who is interested in participating in an exchange program, consult the Student Affairs Office website.
- If you are a law student from another institution who is interested in coming to McGill as part of an exchange program, see the Incoming Exchange & Visiting Students website.

The Faculty of Law also offers students the opportunity to participate in credited summer Human Rights Internships. These internships are coordinated through the Centre for Human Rights and Legal Pluralism (CHRLP) and count for course credit. Details about the Human Rights Internships can be found at mcgill.ca/humanrights/clinical/internships. For further details on these opportunities and more, please visit the Career Development Office of the Faculty of Law at mcgill.ca/cdo.
