

HEALTH SCIENCES: GENERAL INFORMATION

This section contains important details specific to the McGill health sciences, as an addendum to information found in the University Regulations and Resources (Undergraduate). You will find information related to such topics as: language policies, vaccination/immunization requirements, immigration information, and information on the various facilities available.

Further regulations and information may be specified by your individual faculty or school.