The Schulich School of Music offers degree programs leading to a Bachelor of Music (B.Mus.), and diploma programs leading to a Licentiate in Music (L.Mus.).

- The Department of Music Research offers Minor and/or Major programs in Applied Performance Sciences, Composition, Music Education, Music Entrepreneurship, Music History, Music Theory, Musical Applications of Technology, and Musical Science and Technology.
- The Department of Performance offers Minor and/or Major programs in Conducting, Early Music Performance, Orchestral Performance, Piano Performance, Voice Performance, Organ and Guitar Performance, and Jazz Performance.

The Schulich School of Music of McGill University also offers the opportunity to pursue courses that reflect your multiple interests through collaboration with McGill's other faculties and departments. You may wish to consider partnering your music major studies with subjects from a different music department, or from other faculties that would lead to graduating with a double major, double degrees, or minor. B.Mus. students who are interested in pursuing double majors or double degrees should consult our Double Majors and Double Degrees page.
