

IMMUNOLOGY

About Immunology

Three departments offer the Honours program in Immunology, combining elements of each:

- Biochemistry (BIOC)
- Microbiology and Immunology (MIMM)
- Physiology (PHGY)

The program is a demanding one which will prepare students for graduate work in immunology.

Students who do not maintain Honours standing must transfer their registration to a program in one of the three participating departments.

More information is available via our program advisors (p. 1).
