

INDEPENDENT STUDY AWAY

Unlike an exchange, participating in an Independent Study Away means that you apply and pay tuition to your host university independently as a visiting student. This program is an opportunity to go abroad to a destination not covered by McGill's already existing exchange destinations. You must consult the Student Affairs Office of your McGill faculty, as well as the Admissions Office of the university to which you are applying regarding application requirements.

Contact information for your faculty's Student Affairs Office can be found on the Advisor Directory page.